Audition Notice

By Norm Foster

Produced by Maureen Holloway | Directed by Carlotta Rutledge

Monday, September 11 and Tuesday, September 12 2017 at 7:00 pm

Firehall Theatre, Cobourg

Second floor Blair Room

Written by Norm Foster, one of Canada's more prolific playwrights, Bob's Your Elf is the perfect comedy for the holiday season. You will recognize bits from The Christmas Carol, Rudolph the Red Nose Reindeer, The Night Before Christmas, and even the Nativity, as the Thithelville Thespians make an attempt to put on a Christmas play that needs some serious work. In comes Bob, a real live Elf, sent by Santa to save the day. Unfortunately, Bob is one miserable, incompetent Elf who also needs to learn a lesson or two about the Christmas spirit. A play full of laughs and just in time for Christmas, eh?

Bob's Your Elf runs weekends, both evening and matinee performances, December 1 to December 17, 2017 at the Firehall Theatre in Cobourg. Rehearsals will begin Tuesday and Sunday evenings in September.

The cast consists of 6 actors, 4 male and 2 female, all 30 years or older, who play the actors and crew of the Thithelville Thespians, Santa Claus and one unusual elf.

Several children will be required, but auditions will be held later in the Fall for them.

Auditions will consist of cold readings from the script. No prepared piece is required. Bring all your comedic skills for this one.
