Produced by Tom Hall, Directed by Jim Finan

Three tenors. Three egos. One stage. What could possibly go wrong? Producer and former mayor of Cleveland Henry Saunders is about to find out as he attempts to stage the concert of the century. But with an amorous Italian superstar and his hot-blooded wife causing chaos on an operatic level, all bets are off! As opening night draws near, flaring tempers, mistaken identities, and bedroom hijinks bring new meaning to the phrase "the show must go on," in this laugh-out-loud farce set amidst the glitz and glamour of 1930s Paris.

Roles:

- Henry Saunders: 30/50 years, A very nervous concert promoter
- Max: 20/30 years, Henry's exasperated assistant, closet tenor.
- Tito Merelli: 40/50-ish, a world renown tenor opera star a la Pavarotti but more anxious. The actor who plays Tito also plays Beppo, a singing ex gondolier and Tito lookalike.
- Maria Merelli: 40/50-ish, Tito's loving, long suffering wife.
- Mimi Merelli: 20/25 years, Tito and Maria's daughter, aspiring film actress
- Carlo: 20/25 years, Mimi's fiancé, aspiring tenor opera singer
- Tatiana Racon: The Russian bombshell and opera star.

Auditions will take place on Sunday November 19th starting at 7pm with possible call-backs on November 22nd.

For the roles of Tito, Max, and Carlo (the three tenors), the ability to sing would be ideal but not critical. No preparation is required for this audition other than a sense of humour and an open mind. Rehearsals will begin mid December.
